WELCOME TO FRONTIER FIELD

HOME OF THE ROCHESTER RAGING RHINOS

On July 12, 1996, the Rochester Raging Rhinos played the first-ever sporting contest at Frontier Field. The Rhinos defeated the Montreal Impact 3-2 in a thrilling come-from-behind victory before 14,717 fans. The win helped catapult the Rhinos to a successful season, one in which they made the finals of both the U.S. Open Cup Tournament and the A-League playoffs. That same season, the Rhinos set an A-League record for single-game attendance when 14,809 witnessed the Rhinos-Montreal playoff match on September 21, 1996.

The success has continued as the Rhinos have led the A-League in attendance every season including averaging a franchise best 11,628 fans per match in 2000. The 2000 season also saw the Rhinos welcome their 1,000,000th fan in just five years.

There is more, however, to Frontier Field than the games that are played there or the amount of people that it can hold. There are many little-known facts about the friendly confines of Frontier Field. Did you know there are:

- * 850 million blades of grass on the field
- * 175,000 bricks in the stadium
- * 25,000 bricks in the Walk of Fame
- * Over 400 trees and shrubs at the stadium
- * Over 40,000,000 lbs. of concrete in the stadium
- * Over 10,000 cubic yards of concrete in the stadium
- * 750 tons of steel in the stadium
- * 43,250 square feet in the seating bowl
- * 153 brick arches around the stadium
- * More than a mile of railings throughout the stadium
- * 70 sprinkler heads on the field (62 rotary heads, 8 mist heads)
- * 100,000 linear feet of reinforcement for masonry at the super-structure

Frank DuRoss President

Rochester Raging Rhinos President Frank DuRoss has owned the club – with Steve Donner and Chris Economides – since the team's inception in 1995. A native of Utica, New York, DuRoss has been the catalyst in the Rhinos drive for PaeTec Park, a new, multi-purpose outdoor stadium in Rochester.

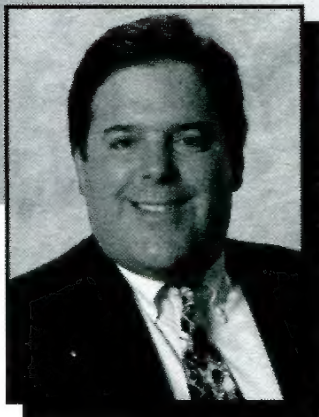

Frank's tireless efforts, including working with local and state political leaders, has secured funds for the new stadium. The State of New York has committed $15 million, while the County of Monroe will contribute $7 million for the project. The Rhinos ownership group will fund over 60% of the project - $26 million – to secure PaeTec Park.

In 1987, DuRoss ventured into the sports industry when he was named President of the Utica Devils of the American Hockey League (AHL). Four years later he co-purchased the Maine Hockey Club and moved them to Providence where it became one of the league's strongest franchises, winning the Calder Cup Championship in 1999. Frank, along with Chris Economides and Steve Donner are the owner/operators of the Rochester Rattlers, the new Major League Lacrosse franchise that will invade Rochester for their inaugural season in the summer of 2001.

Before becoming involved in professional sports, DuRoss has owned and operated various national businesses. He owned and later sold Oneida Building Services, Inc., a company which generated $24 million in sales and was recognized as one of the 350 fastest growing businesses in the country. Presently, DuRoss owns Sylvan Strands Realty Corporation, a commercial real estate property development company, radio station (WOWZ FM-97.9) in Utica and the rights to a television station in Des Moines, Iowa. DuRoss can be seen in the crowd at all Rhinos home games, and is frequently in the Rhinos office actively participating in the day-to-day operations of the club.

Frank and his wife Liz have two children, daughter Noelle and son Frank, Jr, daughter-in-law Anne and two grandchildren, Taylor and Alyssa.

Steve Donner Chief Executive Officer

Steve Donner has had a long and highly successful career in the professional sports field. In 1995, Donner partnered with Frank DuRoss and Chris Economides to form the Rochester Raging Rhinos and helped guide the team into the A-League for the 1996 season. Donner's leadership and marketing savvy have helped earn the Rhinos national recognition both on and off the field, and his foresight and vision have made Rochester's proposed multi-purpose outdoor stadium close to a reality.

Donner also is majority owner of the Rochester Americans of the American Hockey League. He has helped the team achieve success on the ice at the gate since acquiring the franchise in 1995. In his first year as President and CEO, the Amerks won the AHL's Calder Cup Championship, earning Donner the league's James C. Hendy Award as its top executive. The native of Rochester also owns the National Lacrosse League's Rochester Knighthawks, who have appeared in the NLL's championship game four of the last six seasons, winning the North American Cup in 1997. If that isn't enough, Donner and his soccer partners Chris Economides and Frank DuRoss are also owner/operators of the Rochester Rattlers, Rochester's new Major League Lacrosse franchise that begins their inaugural season of play in June, 2001.

Donner spent nine seasons in the National Hockey League with the Buffalo Sabres and the Tampa Bay Lightning, heading both franchises marketing and sales departments. Donner's creation of Tampa Bay's "Fan Land", an interactive amusement facility adjacent to the arena, is heralded as one of the most creative and acclaimed sports marketing tools ever.

A graduate of the University of Dayton, Donner has been instrumental in introducing four expansion franchises – the Dayton Gems (International Hockey League), Buffalo Bandits (MILL/NLL), Tampa Bay Lightning (NHL) and the Rochester Knighthawks.

Steve lives in Rochester with his two daughters, Megan and Stephanie.

Chris Economides
Chief Operating Officer
Vice President/General Manager

Chris Economides has been instrumental in forming the Raging Rhinos team that has sprung to national prominence on the soccer scene. In his role as Chief Operating Officer and Vice President/General Manager, Economides is responsible for the soccer business of the club. From off-season player scouting, signing of players to representing the team in league matters, he keeps busy year-round helping to assemble one of professional soccer's premier organizations.

Economides, along with partners Steve Donner and Frank DuRoss, formed the Rhinos in the fall of 1995. His expertise in soccer matters has made the Rhinos one of North America's premier soccer franchises. During his tenure with the Rhinos, the club has won the A-League Championship in 1998 and the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup Title in 1999. The team has a 91-46-2 regular season record in A-League competition, a 17-7-1 A-League play-off mark and an 11-4 U.S. Open Cup mark.

In addition to his soccer duties, Chris also stays busy during the summer by assuming the same role for the Rochester Rattlers, Rochester's Major League Lacrosse franchise that will begin their inaugural season of play in the summer of 2001. Prior to his role with the Rhinos, Economides previously co-owned the Kansas City Attack of the NPSL from 1991-1993. The Attack captured the NPSL championship in 1992-93, finishing a successful season by defeating the Cleveland Crunch 3-2 in the finals in front of 12,000 fans at Kansas City's Kemper Arena.

A native of Rochester, Economides graduated from Monroe Community College and Eastridge High School. He has also owned a variety of restaurants in the area. He lives with his wife Donna and their two sons, Steven and Alex, in Fairport, and the Economides clan is very active in youth soccer, hockey, and baseball.

Rochester Raging Rhinos

Pat Ercoli Head Coach

The Rhinos under Ercoli:

A-League Record: 91-46-2

Playoff Record: 17-7-1

U.S. Open Cup Record: 11-4

1996 A-League Runner-Up
1996 U.S. Open Cup Runner-Up
1998 Northeast Division Champions
1998 Eastern Conference Champions
1998 A-League Regular Season Points Champions
1998 A-League Coach of the Year
1998 A-League Champions
1999 Northeast Division Champions
1999 Eastern Conference Champions
1999 A-League Regular Season Points Champions
1999 U.S. Open Cup Champions
1999 A-League Runner-Up
2000 Eastern Conference Champions
2000 A-League Champions

Guiding the Rhinos into their sixth season of play is Pat Ercoli, a 40 year-old native of Toronto who is no stranger to Rochester soccer fans. Ercoli starred for the Rochester Lancers of the NASL for three seasons (1978-80), where his hard work and tenacious play made him a fan favorite.

He has brought that same philosophy to the Rhinos, and it paid off during the Rhinos' inaugural campaign of 1996. With the help of Vice President/General Manager Chris Economides, Ercoli assembled an expansion team from scratch. While it took a while for the club to come together, the Rhinos were arguably one of the hottest professional teams in North America by mid-season. Wins over the Tampa Bay Mutiny and the Colorado Rapids of Major League Soccer in the U.S. Open Cup Tournament proved to the soccer world that the Ercoli-led squad was a team to be reckoned with, and trips to both the U.S. Open Cup final and an appearance in the A-League championship game further solidified the Rhinos as a competitive force in only the franchise's first season.

In 1997, Ercoli's Rhinos shot out of the gates with a 4-0 record and looked poised to continue where they had left off the season before. Fortunes turned, however, and a stream of injuries and roster changes took their toll on Rochester. A highlight of the season for Coach Ercoli was his naming as the Head Coach of the Eastern Conference All-Stars at the A-League All-Star game at Frontier Field on July 15, 1997.

Pat Ercoli Head Coach

In 1998, Ercoli's Rhinos began the season 13-0 on their way to a 24-4 regular season record and 6-0 in the playoffs to capture their first A-League championship. Rochester also lead the league in goals scored and goals allowed. A highlight of the season for Coach Ercoli was his being named A-League Coach of the Year. In addition to Ercoli, five Rhinos were honored as All A-League First Team All-Star selections.

The 1999 season saw the Rhinos overcome numerous injuries and a grueling schedule to post a 22-6 regular season record and capture their first U.S. Open Cup championship, as well as a return trip to the A-League finals against Minnesota. In addition, three Rhinos, Mauro Biello, Craig Demmin and Scott Schweitzer were named to the All A-League First Team All-Star squad, while Pat Onstad received second team honors.

Heading into the 2000 season the Rhinos featured what was arguably their best team to date. After beginning the season with a 2-3 record the Rhinos regrouped to post a 17-9-2 record and a second place finish in the Northeast Division. The Rhinos charged through the A-League's second season going 4-0-1 and winning their second A-League championship in three seasons. On their way, the Rhinos placed four players on the A-League's First Team All-Star squad as defenders Scott Schweitzer and Craig Demmin along with midfielder Yari Allnutt and goalkeeper Scott Vallow were selected. Meanwhile midfielders Lenin Steenkamp and Martin Nash earned Second Team honors. In addition, Vallow, a 23-year old first year Rhino led the A-League in goals against average and was named the 2000 A-League goalkeeper of the year.

Ercoli began his professional soccer career with Toronto Italia (NSL) in 1976 before moving to the Toronto Castors the following season where he won a championship the following season. While playing the next three seasons with the Lancers, Ercoli began playing indoor soccer for the New York Arrows of the MISL; he also spent time playing with Buffalo, Baltimore (where he captured three MISL divisional championships and one league title), and Detroit in the MISL before ending his ten-year professional career with the Cleveland Force.

Since his retirement from the pro game, Ercoli has lived in Rochester with his wife, Karen and his four children (daughters Marybeth and Melissa, sons Ryan and Chris). Prior to joining up with the Rhinos, he ventured into private business and kept active in soccer by coaching youth leagues, and working as an assistant at Finger Lakes Community College and Monroe Community College.

Frank Odoi

Assistant Coach

Former Lancer Frank Odoi rejoins Pat Ercoli for the Rhinos sixth season of A-League play as the assistant coach. A popular soccer figure in the city of Rochester, Odoi played nine seasons with the Lancers from 1970 through 1978, helping the club to the NASL championship in 1970. He played both the forward and midfield positions with the Lancers, and he was voted Team MVP in both 1974 and 1975.

Odoi began his professional career in his native country of Ghana, where he played for the National Team which went to the 1964 Tokyo Olympics. He was selected as the best player in Tunis in 1965 when Ghana captured the African Cup. Drafted by the Washington Whips of the NASL in 1968, Odoi came to the United States later that year and began his NASL career in Washington. The following season, Odoi played with the Syracuse Scorpions, and then in 1970, he came to Rochester.

The native of Ghana has played against such stars as Pele (Brazil), Johann Cruiff (Holland), Eusebio (Portugal), George Best (England), and Franz Beckenbauer (Germany) during his 18-year pro career.

Odoi was an assistant soccer coach at SUNY Brockport, and he has coached many championship youth soccer teams in the area during the past years. His daughter is a graduate of Syracuse University.

Francisco Escos

Assistant Coach

Francisco worked with the Rhinos goalkeepers in 2000. Under his guidance the Rhino 'keepers allowed the fewest goals in the A-League. A member of the Rochester Lancer's from 1971-79. A native of Argentina, Escos lives in Rochester with his wife Elena. He has three daughters and one grandson.

As a Rhino: An "original Rhino" - signed with Rochester in March, 1996... Started every regular season game in 1996 and 1997, a stretch of 55 games... The Rhinos all-time career regular season leader in saves (316)... Holds the Rhinos regular season record for most saves (13) - 6/7/97 vs Jacksonville), and matched that total in the Rhinos 3-2 playoff victory at Montreal 9/19/96.

2000 Regular Season: Recorded back-to-back clean sheets against Boston 5/12 and Connecticut 5/19... Posted four shutouts during the season, including a 0-0 tie at Toronto, 6/25... Suffered season-ending knee injury at Toronto, 6/25 in a collision at the end of overtime.

2000 U.S. Open Cup: Made six saves against Pittsburgh, 6/14 in the Rhinos U.S. Open Cup First Round match.

1999 Regular Season: Recorded consecutive wins in his first two starts of the season against Jacksonville on 5/29 and against Charleston 6/4... Blanked the Raleigh Capital Express for his first shutout of the season, 7/9... Was loaned to the NY/NJ MetroStars on 7/19... Posted his second shutout of the season of 1999 against Hershey, 8/21.

1999 A-League Playoffs: Defeated the Pittsburgh Riverhounds, 6-2, in Game One of the second round to notch his first post-season win since 1996... Shutout the Hershey Wildcats 1-0 in Game Two of the Eastern Conference Semifinals at Frontier Field, 10/9.

1999 U.S. Open Cup: Was in goal for the Rhinos 2-1 overtime victory against the New York Freedoms (PDSL), 6/30... Played the second half of against the Dallas Burn, 8/11, and earned the win making five saves.

1998 Regular Season: Had a 1-0 record (a shutout) and a 0.00 goals-against average....Loaned to the Miami Fusion (MLS) on August 27, and made his MLS debut in Miami's 1-0 loss to Columbus on September 9....Made five saves and allowed one goal....Made his only start July 10 vs. Atlanta and recorded two saves in a 1-0 win....That match put him over 5,000 minutes played as a Rhino, becoming the second player in the history of the franchise to accomplish that feat....Loaned to the New York/New Jersey MetroStars (MLS) for most of May and June....Appeared in the MetroStars friendly against Benfica of Portugal, playing 28 minutes and allowing one goal and making four saves.

1997 Regular Season: Became the only Rhino to amass over 2,000 minutes played in two consecutive seasons... Had back-to-back 1-0 shutouts on May 14 and 16 (Jacksonville and Carolina, respectively)... Those two games were the second half of his longest consecutive win streak as a Rhino - four games (which he has done three times)... Did not play the entire game on only two occasions... Shared a 4-0 shutout win with Rett Thompson, 8/29/97 against Long Island... Had 13 saves (Rhinos regular season record), 6/7/97 versus Jacksonville...Collected 11 saves against the A-League champion Milwaukee Rampage, 8/17/97.

Rochester Raging Rhinos

#1 Billy Andracki

Goalkeeper

1997 A-League Playoffs: Played every minute of both Rochester losses, limiting Long Island to one goal.

1997 U.S. Open Cup: Played every minute of both Rochester games.

1996 Regular Season: Started all 27 games for the Rhinos and missed time in only one game... Was in net for the first franchise win (6/21/96 vs. Vancouver)... Information Requests: Requests for information should be directed to the Rhinos Communications Department: Rochester Raging Rhinos Soccer Club, 333 North Plymouth Avenue, Rochester, NY 14608-1837. The phone number is (716) 454-5425. Fax transmissions can be sent to (716) 454-5453.

Media Credentials: Season passes are available only to those media members who cover the team on a regular basis. Those who need media credentials for an individual game should contact the Rhinos Communications office at (716) 454-KICK by 5:00 p.m. the day before a game. Requests for individual game seating should be provided on your media outlet's letterhead (via fax). Press box seats are filled on a space-available basis. Media credentials will be available two hours before game time.

All media credentials are property of the Rochester Raging Rhinos. The credentials are issued to an organization for the sole purpose of providing stadium access to an accredited individual who has a legitimate working function in connection with a Rhinos' game. The Rhinos reserve the right to confiscate media credentials at any time. Any member of the media who use their passes to bring family will have their credentials revoked. Credentials are for working purposes only.

Media Entrance: The Media Entrance at Frontier Field is the Suite Entrance, located next to the Frontier Field ticket office. Only media members, suite-holders, game-day staff, and players will be allowed in that entrance. All tickets must be left at the ticket office. Steve Abbamonte will be returning for his sixth season as the Rhinos' media entrance attendant.

Media Parking: There are a limited number of parking spots available in the Frontier Field parking lot (Morrie Silver Way) and season passes are available only to those media members who cover the team on a regular basis. Those who need parking passes on a game-by-game basis should contact the Rhinos Communications office by 5:00 p.m. the day before a game.

2001 MEDIA INFORMATION

TV Live Shots:

All requests for pre-game television live shots should be coordinated through the Rhinos Communications office. All requests for live shots should be made by 12:00 noon the day of the game in order to make the necessary player arrangements for the interview.

Press Box:

To reach the Frontier Field press box, enter through the Suite Entrance and take the elevator to the second floor (suite level). Only media members, off-field officials, and game-day staff will have access to the press box. Abuse of Rhinos credentials to gain press box access for individuals other than the working media will not be tolerated and will lead to the forfeiture of credentials. A hot meal will be served before each game in the press box.

An unofficial score sheet will be available in the press box at halftime and the official game score sheet will be available immediately following the game in both the press box and the dressing room area. Game notes are prepared for each game and can be obtained in the press box.

There are a limited number of phone lines and electrical outlets in the press box. Please contact the Rhinos Communications office to make special arrangements for phone lines if necessary. The press box phone number is (716) 454-1001, extension 3052.

Television Cameras:

A television camera platform is located on the suite level at the mid-field point ("the perch"). Cameras are allowed behind both goals, and on the sideline opposite the benches, behind the field signs. Absolutely no cameras are allowed on the bench-side of the field during the game.

Media members may choose to cover the game from the "perch" area, but please be courteous of the Rhinos Radio broadcast team and ENG crews working behind the seats. There is no seating for regular media in the "perch" area.

There are certain circumstances in which the perch will be unavailable for ENG crews (ie: televised games). In this case, the Rhinos' communications department will work with ENG crews to find alternative locations.

ROCHESTER RAGING RHINOS

GLOSSARY OF TERMS

Advantage Clause

Applied by the referee when, in his opinion, calling a foul would give an advantage to the offending team. No foul is called and the referee signals "play on."

Boots

Another name for soccer cleats.

Center (Cross)

When the ball is passed from a wide area of the field to the penalty area.

Chip

A high, pass that is lifted over the heads of an opponent.

Clear

Kicking the ball by a player in an attempt to get the ball out of their own penalty area.

Corner Kick

A direct kick taken by an attacking team from the corner of an opponents field. A corner kick is awarded when a defending team advances the ball past its own end-line (not including a goal).

Defender

Player who ordinarily is positioned near his own goal behind the midfielders and forwards and whose primary responsibility is the prevention of the opponent from scoring. Also called a "fullback."

Direct Free Kick

Usually awarded after a foul, the ball is placed in a stationary position and may be kicked directly into the opponents goal without first being touched by another attacker. Corner kicks and penalty kicks are also direct free kicks.

Dribble

A way of advancing the ball by using the feet, keeping the ball close the players body allowing a player to change speed and direction easily.

Drop Ball

Ball dropped by the referee between two opposing players to restart a game after a play has been stopped for a no-penalty situation.

Goal Kick

Indirect free kick taken by a defending player from the defending team's goal area. A goal kick is awarded when a ball was last touched by the attacking team before going over the defending team's goal line (but not into the goal).

Half-Volley

When the ball is kicked after it bounces off of the ground.

Hand Ball

A ball touched illegally by a player's hand or arm.

Heading

Use of the head to shoot, pass, clear or control the ball.

Indirect Free Kick

Awarded to a team after a minor infraction, the ball is placed in a stationary position and may not be kicked directly into the opponent's goal without first being touched by another attacker.

Kickoff

A ball placed in the center spot at mid-field and kicked forward by an attacking player, used to start the game at the beginning of each half and after a goal has been scored. A goal cannot be scored directly off the kickoff.

GLOSSARY OF TERMS

Linesman

Two officials, each equipped with a flag, who assist the referee from the touchlines by signaling offsides when a ball has gone out of bounds and when a foul has been committed. The referee may choose not to act on a lineman's call.

Mark

The act of guarding an attacking player.

Midfielder

Player who ordinarily is positioned in front of the defenders and behind the forwards, whose primary responsibility is to create a link between the defenders and forwards. Also called a "fullback."

Obstruction

Action of a player who impedes an opponent by standing in or moving into his path without attempting to play the ball.

Offsides

Position of an attacking player if he is between his opponent's goal line and the ball when the ball is played unless he is on his own half of the field or two opponents are no farther from the goal line than the attacking player. A player cannot be offside if he receives the ball directly from a corner kick, goal kick, throw-in, or drop ball situation.

Overlap

An attacking run by a defender that carries him past his own midfielders.

Penalty Kick

Direct free kick from the penalty spot after a major foul has been committed by the defending team in its own penalty area. The opposing goalkeeper must remain stationary on his goal line between the goal posts and other players must be outside the penalty area; the ball is kicked by an attacking player.

Pitch

Another name for the playing field.

Professional Foul

A foul, usually hard and from behind, in which a defender intentionally takes down a forward to disrupt a clear scoring opportunity, usually a breakaway. The "professional foul" usually results in a yellow or red card.

Red Card (Ejection)

A disciplinary action taken by the referee against a player for violent conduct and/or serious foul play, foul or abusive language, or persistent misconduct after receiving a caution (yellow card). The offender is shown a red card and sent off the field. He may not be replaced by another player.

Referee

The official in charge of the match. Primary responsibilities include protecting the players and keeping the official time.

Save

A ball caught, deflected or otherwise prevented by the goalkeeper from going into the goal.

ROCHESTER RAGING RHINOS

GLOSSARY OF TERMS

Shield

A dribbler who prevents an opponent from taking the ball by keeping himself between an opponent and the ball.

Shoot-out

The tie-breaking procedure after regulation time. In a shoot-out, each team has five opportunities to score a goal in a one-on-one situation with the opposing goalkeeper. Each one-on-one situation begins with the goalkeeper in goal and the offensive player 35 yards away from the goal line. The player has five seconds to dribble the ball and score.

Stopper

A central defender whose primary responsibility is to mark the opposing center forward or striker.

Sweeper

A defender who is free to roam in front of and/or behind his team's defensive line.

Tackle

An attempt to dispossess an attacker of the ball. A common tackle is the slide tackle, which involves a sliding attempt to kick the ball away.

Through Pass

Pass that travels toward the goal between two or more defenders to a teammate, putting him in a position to score.

Throw-In

A throw executed by an attacking player from outside the touchline. A throw-in is awarded against a team that last touched the ball before it crossed the touchline. The player taking the throw-in must throw the ball onto the field over his head using both hands; he must also keep both feet on the ground either outside or on the touchline.

Trap

The use of the foot, thigh, chest, etc., by a player to bring a ball under control.

Volley

Kick taken before a ball bounces on the ground.

Wall

A line of three or more players positioned at least ten yards from the ball; used to help defend against a free kick.

Winger

An outside forward. Outside defenders are sometimes called "wingbacks."

Yellow Card (Caution)

A disciplinary action taken by a referee against a player for the persistent misconduct, dissent, ungentlemanly conduct or entering the field without permission. The offender is shown a yellow card, a second offense brings a red card and the player is ejected from the match.
